UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA - SANTA ANA DIVISION

In re PAPPAS PIPING SERVICE, INC., Debtor.	Case No. 8:26-bk-10033-MH Chapter 11 DEBTOR'S CHAPTER 11 SUBCHAPTER V INITIAL STATUS REPORT Hearing: Date: February 3, 2026 Time: 2:30 p.m. Ctrm: 6C Place: 411 West Fourth Street Santa Ana, CA 92701

TO THE HONORABLE MARK D. HOULE, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

Debtor and Debtor-in-Possession, Papas Piping Service, Inc., ("Pappas" or "Debtor") submits this Chapter 11 initial case status report ("Status Report") in advance of the status conference, pursuant to the Court's Order (1) Setting Scheduling Hearing and Case Management Conference and

(2) Requiring Status Report ("Order") entered on January 8, 2026, as Dk. No. 12.

1. Background

A. Debtor's Operations

Debtor is a full-service design build piping company that specializes in commercial process and other specialized piping that is used in critical infrastructure for commercial clients. Pappas was founded in 1988 by Mike Pappas ("Mr. Pappas") and Guillermo Silva Jr. ("Mr. Silva") who owned the company 50/50. Since its founding, the Debtor served a premier set of customers, including top-tier general contractors, leading property management firms, and direct clients within the commercial real estate market. The Debtor's expertise is essential to maintaining and developing critical infrastructure in one of the nation's most dynamic commercial zones, confirming our solid operational relevance and stability.

In 2022, Mr. Butler purchased the Debtor from Mr. Pappas and Mr. Silva, when Mr. Pappas and Mr. Silva decided to retire. The structure of the sale in 2022, was that a holding company, Ormond Corporation, a Delaware Corporation ("Ormond Corp") purchased the shares of the Debtor. Mr. Butler then became President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of the Debtor. On April 28, 2022, Live Oak Banking Company ("Live Oak") financed Ormond Corp's original purchase of the Debtor. Id. As part of the loan, Live Oak has a second lien on William and Anne Butler's home.

B. Debtor's Financial Difficulties and Bankruptcy Filing

Soon after Mr. Butler's acquisition of the Debtor in the early half of 2022, three separate factors came into play that dramatically changed the viability of the business and affected its operations. First, shortly after the acquisition, Debtor lost nearly 40% of its revenue due to a loss of a large $3 million contract. Second, the Debtor's traditional customers (general contractors and their clients) were reticent in moving forward with some projects due to the high-interest-rate environment and general macroeconomic uncertainty associated with the election cycle. This created a temporary lag in new project awarding and initiation. Third, the overall piping and general contractor industry is relatively close-knit and based on relationships. The transition from the decade's long ownership of Mr. Pappas and Mr. Silva to Mr. Butler, in a post-covid world, was difficult, and included multiple growing pains.

As the three factors were intensifying, the Debtor borrowed funds to make payroll and purchase materials, some from Mr. Butler and his family, and some in the form of high-interest rate business loans from "MCA" style lenders. While necessary at the time, the expense of this debt structure added unsustainable pressure to the monthly cash flow.

C. Live Oak and Pre-Petition Negotiations

In turn, the cash crunch on the Debtor resulted in the Debtor having difficulties maintaining its obligation to Live Oak. Mr. Butler and his wife tried to sell their home in May 2025, and Live Oak approved a sales price of $5.8 million. However, the Butlers had to reduce the sales price to $5.5 million. Live Oak would not approve the sale unless someone else could pay Live Oak the $300,000 shortfall. Unfortunately, the Butlers did not have $300,000 to pay Live Oak for the shortfall, the sale of the home fell through. The sale of the house would have paid down the Live Oak loan by $1.2 million.

As a result, on June 5, 2025, Debtor missed a payment to Live Oak. Shortly thereafter, "A Notice of Right to Cure Default" dated July 24, 2025, was issued by Live Oak to Ormond Corp and the Debtor. After months of emails and some discussion, Ormond Corp and the Debtor finally ended up with a forbearance agreement dated September 9, 2025 ("Forbearance Agreement"). During discussions with Live Oak, Mr. Butler informed Live Oak that he and his wife would have to file for personal bankruptcy because of a business debt owed to Bank of America.

As part of the Forbearance Agreement, Debtor paid Live Oak the first payment of $20,000 by September 10, 2025, but Debtor missed the next payment of $5,000 due October 5, 2025. At this point, the Butlers again tried to sell their home to assist in paying down the Live Oak secured debt. The proposed sale was set to close on October 1, 2025, and was set to pay Live Oak $1,589,098.99. Again, sadly, the sale did not close because of a last minute judgment lien recorded against the residence by Bank of America.

As a result of the cancellation of the sale of the Butlers' residence, on October 23, 2025, Live Oak sent a notice of default and acceleration of its note. As soon as this notice was received, Debtor paid the $5,000. In order to continue ongoing negotiations, Live Oak demanded that the Debtor had to pay the $73,914.23 in back interest as well, which the Debtor paid. Live Oak generally refused to speak or respond to emails after this payment.

On November 24, 2025, Live Oak then demanded $350,000 as a good faith payment only in order for Live Oak to "continue considering forbearance terms at its discretion." The Debtor requested that if it paid $350,000, would Live Oak agree to reinstate the loan? The answer from Live Oak was no, it only allowed the Debtor to continue to negotiate with Live Oak.

D. The Butler's personal bankruptcy

In order to sell their personal residence, the Butlers were forced to file their own personal Chapter 11 bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California, on November 20, 2025, commencing Case No. 25-51814. The Butlers stated intention in their personal bankruptcy case is to sell their personal residence, which will significantly reduce the principal balance owed to Live Oak.

E. Mr. Pappas returns and Mr. Teeple is appointed as Chief Restructuring Officer

In light of the operational issues after purchasing the Debtor, Mr. Butler reached out to Mr. Pappas to assist in turning around the Debtor's operations and cash flow issues. At that time, Mr. Pappas was living in South Carolina, but he cared deeply about the viability of the business he founded, his former employees, and his former clients. Mr. Pappas agreed to assist the Debtor in turning its operations around and utilized his relationships to obtain advances from certain general contractors and/or clients to assist in the working capital needs and operational cash flow. As a result, the Debtor has fully paid off one of the high interest MCA loans and is current on its ongoing vendor debt and the sole remaining MCA loan. As of the date of filing, the only known unsecured creditors (beyond trade vendors) are the seller's notes to Mr. Pappas and Mr. Silva.[1]

[1] Note, Mr. Pappas is not a statutory insider as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 101(31). Mr. Pappas is no

Additionally, in light of the various circumstances, Mr. Butler's personal Chapter 11 bankruptcy, and the complexities and/or relationship dynamics of the case, the Debtor decided to retain Mr. Joshua Teeple of Grobstein Teeple LLP as its Chief Restructuring Officer. Mr. Teeple has many years of experience as a fiduciary and is working with both Mr. Butler and Mr. Pappas to continue to turn the Debtor's operations around.

Notwithstanding its past financial difficulties, the Debtor, Mr. Butler, Mr. Pappas, and Mr. Teeple have begun to turn around operations. Since Mr. Pappas' return, the Debtor has lined up $11 million in specialty project work that is now in the design phase. This specialty work is slated to begin at the beginning of 2026 and take the Debtor through 2026 and into 2027. This work does not include the everyday plumbing bids that the Debtor will handle throughout the year that are anticipated to contribute another 6 million in revenue. Accordingly, the Debtor believes that it has a viable business that can be operated profitably going forward.

F. Bankruptcy Filing

In order to protect its business, continue paying its employees, and continue servicing its customers, Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 bankruptcy case on January 6, 2026 ("Petition Date").

G. Debtor's Secured and Purportedly Secured Creditors

Debtor's UCC search revealed five active UCC-1 financing statements and two primary secured creditors. As described above, the primary and first position secured lender is Live Oak. Live Oak appears to assert liens on all of Debtor's assets.[2] The other three UCC's are believed to be MCA's, most of which have been paid off pre-petition, and the Debtor has obtained a settlement with the sole remaining MCA (Pirs Capital LLC). Indeed, one of the MCA's have informed the Debtor that they will be issuing a termination of their lien. The other remaining UCC was filed by longer an owner, director, officer, etc., of the Debtor, and is working as a W-2 employee for the Debtor to save the company's legacy.

[2] There are two UCC's recorded in favor of Great American Leasing Corporation, dated March 3, 2008, and July 1, 2010, the Debtor believes those UCC's are for certain leased equipment, and, that the Debtor is current on the obligations and will continue to pay timely post-petition.

one of companies owned by Mr. Butler's father-in-law, for loan(s) provided since the purchase of the Debtor. The Debtor is informed that Mr. Butler's father-in-law consents to the use of cash collateral, will defer payments until confirmation of a proposed Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization, and will work with the Debtor to facilitate a consensual Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization.

2. Status of Debtor's Pre-Petition and Post-Petition Litigation

The Debtor is not aware of any pre-petition and/or post-petition litigation at this time.

3. Potential Avoidance Actions

The Debtor may have certain avoidance actions under 11 U.S.C. §§ 547, 548, 549, 550, and 551, relating to certain pre-petition payments made to the MCA lenders.

4. Retention of Professionals

Debtor will seek to employ Marshack Hays Wood LLP ("MHW"), as its General Counsel and Grobstein Teeple LLP ("GT"), as its Financial Advisor and Accountants. Note, as discussed above, Mr. Joshua Teeple is the Debtor's Chief Restructuring Officer. Mr. Teeple will be filing an employment application seeking approval of a Knudsen payment structure for his services as CRO.

5. Compliance with Duties

Debtor is working to meet its duties and responsibilities under the Bankruptcy Code and the requirements of the United States Trustee. As of the filing of the Status Report, Debtor believes that it is in compliance with all of its duties under 11 U.S.C. §§ 521, 1106, and 1107 and all applicable guidelines of the Office of the United States Trustee.

6. Single Asset Real Estate Case

This case is not a single asset real estate case as contemplated in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B).

7. Proposed Deadline for Filing Plan and Disclosure Statement

Debtor anticipates filing a proposed plan of reorganization within the exclusivity period provided by 11 U.S.C. § 1121.

8. Proposed Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claims

Debtor requests that the Court set a claims bar date at the status conference. Specifically, Debtor requests that the Court fix the bar date for filing proofs of claim or interest in this case ("Claims Deadline") at a date that is no sooner than sixty calendar days after date of service of the formal notice to creditors and parties in interest of the last day to file proofs of claim or interest in the case. To the extent that the Court does not do so, Debtor will file a motion to establish a claims bar date to ensure that it has the correct amounts for all its outstanding obligations.

Debtor further requests that if, after giving notice of the Claims Deadline, additional creditors are discovered who did not receive timely service of the notice of the Claims Deadline, the Debtors may serve such creditor(s) with a supplemental notice advising that the Claims Deadline was set by the Court, and that said creditor(s) must file a proof of claim within thirty days from the date of service of the supplemental notice.

9. Proposed Deadline for Filing Objections to Claims

The Debtor's plan will propose a claim objection deadline of 180 days after the Effective Date of Debtor's plan.

10. Proposed Deadline for Filing Avoidance Actions

The Debtor will likely file any avoidance actions before the expiration of the deadline set forth under 11 U.S.C. §§ 546 and/or 549(d).
